

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION OF 1789

The first Presidential Election

FORMER COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE CONTINENTAL ARMY, GEORGE WASHINGTON FROM THE STATE OF VIRGINIA WAS ELECTED OUR FIRST PRESIDENT.

Washington won the election unanimously. How many electoral votes did he receive?

Blank grey rectangular area for the answer to the question above.

What states cast their electoral votes at the first Electoral College?

Blank grey rectangular area for the answer to the question above.

What state couldn't vote because they failed to slate electors?

Blank grey rectangular area for the answer to the question above.

What two states couldn't vote because they hadn't ratified the Constitution?

Blank grey rectangular area for the answer to the question above.

CITE YOUR SOURCES:

Two horizontal dashed lines for citing sources.

